CATALOGUED BY

Lot No.		Cat. value
318	Centennial Issue, and 1882 to 1887 65 varieties, 13 used	13 54

Cuba.

319	1855-56 Y½ Nos. 5 and 7 used	7 50
320	— Y½ orange-red, No. 6 used, a fine copy	25 00
321	— Y½ on orange-red, No. 8 used	15 00
323	1877 10c green, unused, o. g., well centered	4 00
324	1898-99 1m to 2 pesos, set complete, unused, o. g.	7 86
325	1899 2c on U. S. inverted surcharge, used. This is the copy from which the Chronicle was made, and as far as we know only one other is in existence. The stamp has a straight edge at the left, but this can hardly be considered a defect in the case of a great rarity of this kind
326	1902 1c on 3c unused, o. g., two copies showing shifted surcharge
327	— 1c on 3c the variety without "Habilitado," very scarce, unused, o. g., straight edge at left
328	— 1c on 3c with "Habilitado" below instead of on top, unused, o. g.
329	— 1c on 3c with "Habilitado" both on top and below
330	Newspaper 1894 ½m rose, imperf. pair, unused, o. g. from upper right hand corner of sheet, with imprint

Puerto Principe.

The following lots of Puerto Principe are a small selection from Mr. Andreini's well known collection of these stamps. They are in every instance selected copies, and what is unusual in these stamps, well centered and showing the surcharge distinctly, and nearly all of them are on portions of the original cover. Each stamp bears the well known guarantee of their owner, and the entire lot is well worth the careful attention of all collectors of these stamps. All are used unless otherwise stated.

331	1c on 1m (No. 176)	10 00
332	1 cents on 1m (No. 177)	5 00
333	1 cents on 1m (No. 177), fine, used pair on part of cover	10 00
334	1 cents on 1m, broken 1 (No. 177a)	10 00
335	1 cents on 1m pair, showing both varieties (Nos. 177 and 177a)	15 00

Lot No.		Cat. value
5.25	336 2c on 2m (No. 178), complete strip of 5, containing four copies of No. 178 and one of No. 179, unused, o. g. and fine. The stamps singly catalogue $17.50 but are worth far more in such a strip
2.50	337 2c on 2m, both types (Nos. 178 and 179), fine used copies	7 00
2.40	338 2c on 2m, unsevered pair showing both types (Nos. 178 and 179) with military cancellation	7 00
4.75	339 — Two fine used pairs, in distinct shades, light brown and dark brown (Nos. 178 and 179)	14 00
4.25	340 — Strip of 5 used, containing four of No. 178 and one of No. 179. The stamps singly catalogue $13, but such a strip as this is worth far more

8.25	342 2c on 2m inverted surcharge (No. 178a), perfs. close at right	25 00
3.75	343 3c on 3m, unsevered pair lightly cancelled, showing both types (Nos. 180 and 181)	11 00
9.00	344 3c on 3m inverted surcharge (No. 180a), a finely centered used copy of a scarce stamp

7.75	346 5c on 1m (No. 182), perfs. close at right, but a very satisfactory copy as the surcharge does not cover the numeral	25 00

14.00	348 5c on 5m inverted surcharge (No. 188a). This stamp is priced at $30 in the catalogue, which is only three times the price of the normal-variety, whereas any Puerto Principe invert is worth from 6 to 10 times the price of the normal variety

2.60	350 5c on ½m (No. 190), well centered	7 50

8.50	356 5c on ½m (19½mm), scarce type (No. 193)	30 00

1350	369 5c on 4m (No. 217), off center at top but as said before this is of little importance in the case of very scarce stamps, which are practically unknown in any other condition
