Greg Manning Auctions Sale - 094

Ivy & Mader - High Quality and Rare Worldwide Stamps & Covers - January 23, 2003

Ivy & Mader Philatelic Auctions is proud to present one of the most multifaceted and valuable auctions we have put together in some time. Consignments from over 65 vendors on five continents have poured in over the past few months. The featured collection in the sale is that formed by Quintin E. Marlow, a long-time client from Dallas, Texas. Mr. Marlow had a penchant for premium quality mint and used 19th and 20th century United States stamps and it is his holding from which many of the gems in this auction came. In addition, he was able to assemble a choice complete set of Duck plate blocks, as well as extensive collections of many foreign countries.

Speaking of collections, we have more intact collections, collection balances and other large lots in this sale than we have had in many years. In fact, we are going to need an extra-large truck just to haul it all to New York! In addition to the Marlow lots, we are offering Dr. Norman Bolton's U.S. and General Foreign Collection mostly as intact lots; Major General Alexander Markovic's collection of Worldwide as a separate section in the back of the catalog; and the A.S. Williams voluminous collection largely as intact collections.

Other significant consignments in the first two sessions include a Southern Lady's collection of United States Currency, Part II of Donald McKee's plate blocks; and the Charles B. Sawyer collection of Boston Postal History.

The Third session of Foreign features excellent Canada and Provinces from the "Southern Cross" collection, as well as, the impressive Paul G. Markison collection of Canadian Revenues. There is also our usual wide range of interesting General Foreign singles, sets and covers from which to choose.

We will be in New York on January 22nd-24th. We can be reached through the Warwick Hotel switchboard at 212-247-2700 and faxes can be sent to the attention of Ivy & Mader Auctions at 212-247-2725. Telephone calls regarding the material in this auction must be directed to us at the Warwick Hotel on these days. Any bid sheets faxed on Friday, January 23rd & Saturday, January 24th, must be faxed to our attention at the Warwick Hotel. We thank you in advance for what is sure to be a resounding success.
