<JACO7005> Jacob, Néstor
Colección Roger B. Preston de Puerto Rico (The Roger B. Preston Collection of Puerto Rico)
Madrid: Filatelia Hobby, S.A. Auction held 13 May 1970, 290 lots, profusely illustrated.
Also listed as <ROBS7005>. For an overview of the contents of this auction see <PPH7005>.
This is the auction catalog for the auction of the Roger B. Preston collection held in joint collaboration by Robson Lowe, Ltd of London and Nestor Jacob of Filatelia Hobby, S.A. of Madrid. The collection is largely illustrated in Preston's book <PRES5000>.

<JAGY6303> Jagyi, Desmond D.
"About Naval Covers. Cuban Quarantine Ships."
Covers, Vol.13, No.3, March 1963, p.22.
List of USS on quarantine duty in the Caribbean. Includes list of Russian ships inspected by U.S. boats.

<JALK4600> Jalkut, Stanley S.
"Stamp Booklets and Booklet Panes"
The Stamp Specialist: India Book, (No.17), 1946, pp.62-63.
A listing of all Cuban booklet panes issued that contains some erroneous information.
El autor publica en 1946 una relación de las libretas de sellos de Cuba. La numeración Scott utilizada es la correspondiente al sello de la hojita, y no la que el catálogo Scott propiamente le asigna a la hojita completa (booklet pane). En la relación publicada faltan cuatro libretas y hay algunas informaciones inexactas. Para un estudio actualizado sobre el tema se recomienda ver la monografía No 6 de la SFCI. (JCP-Monograph-No.6).

<JAQU8005> Jaques, Robert
"Miami to Havana -- by Glider"
APJ, Vol.51, No.8, Issue 600, May 1980, pp.278-279, ill.
Account of the first (and only one ever) international sky train flight which took place 18 May 1935 from Miami to Havana and was piloted by O'Meara and Dupont.

<JARR5803> Jarrett, Fred
"John Robert Gregg on the 12c. Cuban Airmail"
AP, Vol.71, No.6, WNo.686, March 1958, p.433.
On Scott C166, issued to commemorate the 90th anniversary of the birth of John Robert Gregg, inventor of the Gregg shorthand system. Biographical.

<JARU4701> Jaruco, Conde San Juan de (Francisco Xavier de Santa Cruz y Mallén)
"Del Pasado—Los Primeros Correos de Cuba" ("From the Past—The First Cuban Posts")
DMAR, 5 Jan 1947, page number unknown. The copy I have came from the Web pages of The Cuban Genealogy Club of Miami. The link to the referenced page is:
http://cubangenclub.com/members/del_pasado/del_pasado_correos_de_cuba.htm
Brief history of the beginnings of the Cuban postal service from the 16th Century to the early 19th Century with emphasis on identifying the key personalities in charge of the service during those times—the equivalent of postmaster generals.

<JARV6901> Jarvis, Ernest G.
The Ernest G. Jarvis Collection, Part I: United States, Canal Zone, Cuba, Guam, Hawaii, Philippines
Also listed as <SIEGR6901>.
New York, Robert A. Siegel Auction Galleries, Inc., 545th Sale, 8 Jan 1969, Cuba lots 386 to 415 (30) on pp.31-33 plus two pages of photo illustrations. 28 out of the 30 lots in this sale were Puerto Príncipe printings covering all five printings. The last two lots were of U.S. Administration period stamps, including a choice copy of Scott 226A—another great rarity of Cuban philately.

<JCP> Journal of Cuban Philately—Revista de Filatelia Cubana

Official Journal of the International Cuban Philatelic Society (ICPS or SFCI in Spanish). Published quarterly by the ICPS starting with issue No.1 of July-August 2010. Editorial Board composed of Ernesto Cuesta (Chairman), Ronald Hill (Editor), and members of the Board Octavio Cabrera, Daniel Chaij, Robert Littrell, Mark Piper, Rudy Roy, and Mark Tyx. The journal and associated monographs are completely bilingual in English and Spanish. Subscription to the journal is included with membership in the ICPS and is available in two forms: hardcopy with a regular membership in the Society or electronic with an electronic membership. The journal is supplemented on an ad hoc basis by separate "Special Studies Monographs" dedicated to long articles on specific subjects of Cuban philately that would overwhelm the regular journal by their length or that would have to be published in installments detracting from their interest. Monographs are provided free of charge to the ICPS members in either hardcopy or electronic form depending on their type of membership. The journal and monographs are distributed internationally free of charge to 22 philatelic libraries worldwide, 12 in the United States and 10 abroad. The journal and monographs are published in color in 8.5 x 11 inch format using the printing facilities of the Rocky Mountain Philatelic Library in Denver, Colorado. Current number printed for first issue is 170 copies. Subsequent issues range from 100 to 120 copies each. Additional copies may be printed as needed. Number of pages in each issue ranges from 24 to 36 for the journals and from 24 to 48 pages for the mongographs. Single issues of both the journal or monographs can be ordered from the ICPS at $10.00 each postpaid in the United States or $15 postpaid to foreign countries. Published issues of the journal and monographs are listed following.

<JEWEL7104> Jewell, Charles
"The Cuba/Jamaica Combination"
P, Vol.37, No.7, WNo.554, Apr 1971, p.215.

Letter to the editor disputing a statement in <FOST7101> on the analysis of the routing of the cover shown in <P7007>. Mr. Jewell contends that the cover in question probably travelled from Cienfuegos to Havana by coastal vessel instead of by land, arguing that the land route at that time "would have been long, difficult, and dangerous as well as very slow". His argument is incorrect; Cienfuegos is a city in the southern coast of Cuba and Havana is in the northern coast making the trip by sea around the tip of the island extremely long, very slow, and more dangerous than the land route--especially since at the time there existed a long established and reliable railroad service between the two cities. Moreover, Mr. Jewell supports his argument of a coastal routing with a discussion of postal rates which is incorrect.

Excellent specialized catalog of the philatelic material of Cuba during the Spanish colonial period. It includes an introduction titled "Pre-Philately" which is really a very high level overview of the evolution of the mail system during the Spanish Administration. The main part of the catalog is Section 1 covering the regular postage stamp issues. This is followed by separate sections on bogus stamps, cinderella stamps, fakes and forgeries, official stamps, stationery, telegraph stamps, Cuban stamps used in other countries, a catalog concordance, and four plates of photos. For stamps the concordance is between the Jones-Roy catalog and Scott, Gibbons, Yvert, and Guerra catalog numbering systems; for postal stationery the concordance is between the Jones-Roy catalog and the Higgins & Gage catalog.

15 January 1987 Letter to Rudy Roy
The letter makes reference to the sale of the Society of Philatelic Americans (SPA) library and the fact that it was bought by a friend of Mr. Jones who let him examine the materials in the library. Mr. Jones indicates in the letter that he found little information in the holdings pertaining to Cuba. However, he mentions that he copied all items with references to Cuba and is providing Mr. Roy with a first set of copies together with the letter. Among the items cited in the third paragraph in the letter is a reference to the incomplete <ROIGM0608>, but lists the name of the author as Mario S. Roig instead of Mario L. Roig.

15December 1987 Letter to Ernesto Cuesta
The letter acknowledges receipt of photocopies of Cuban philatelic literature and is accompanied in return by copies of three so far unpublished articles on Cuban philately by Mr. Jones with the statement that he has also sent them to Silvia García-Frutos in Miami for consideration for publication by the Cuban Philatelic Society of America. One of them, "Why was the Christmas Issue of 1960 Printed on Security Paper?" (see <JONE8803>), was published in the March-April issue of BM . A second one, "The Smith-Bartels Feud of 1899" (see <JONE8804a>), was published in the 2nd Quarter issue of POSS. The third one, "Cuba–1899; Those Mysterious Treasury Envelopes Not Regularly Issued" (see <JONE8811>), was finally published in the November-December 1988 issue of PSta. The letter ends with report of a meeting with Ignacio Prats while visiting Puerto Rico in which Prats mentioned that he was worried about hearing that Peter Robertson and Fernando Iglesias were trying to start a separate Cuban stamp club in New York City, a project that never materialized.

A Handbook of the Stamps of Cuba. Part III. The Republic 1902-1961.
Co-author: Rudy J. Roy, Jr. (also listed under <ROY8800>).
Winter Park, Florida: The Authors, 1988, ix intro pages plus 322 pp. and 7 fold-out pages, ill.
Excellent specialized unpriced catalog of the stamps of the Republic of Cuba into the first few issues of the Castro government. Postage, airmail, special delivery, postage due, and postal tax stamps are listed in the main body in chronological order. Special sections on cinderellas (pp.255-259), fakes and forgeries (pp.261-265), post office seals (pp.267-270), postal stationery (pp.271-291), "souvenirs" issued by the Government (pp.293-294), and telegraph stamps (pp.295-297) follow the main body of the catalog. Since the catalog uses its own numbering system, several catalog number concordance tables are provided at the back of the catalog. For stamps the concordance is between the Jones-Roy catalog and Scott, Gibbons, Yvert, and Guerra catalog numbering systems; for postal stationery the concordance is between the Jones-Roy catalog and Higgins & Gage and Guerra; for post office seals and telegraph stamps the concordance is between the Jones-Roy catalog and Yvert and Guerra. The catalog provides descriptive and printing information for each issue, exact date of issue when known, listing of all values in each issue, quantities of each printed, plate number information, and major known varieties. This is the most comprehensive specialized catalog of Cuban stamps published to date.

"Why was the Christmas Issue of 1960 Printed on Security Paper?"
"¿Por qué se imprimió la emisión de sellos de Navidad de 1960 en papel de seguridad?"
BM, Vol.IX, No.29, Mar-Abr 1988, p.23, ill., Eng. & Span.
El autor relata una confesión hecha por un ex funcionario de la Editorial Omega S.A. relativa a la impresión de la serie de navidades de 1960 (Scott 648/662). La editorial había sido nacionalizada a inicios de ese año y se utilizó un papel de seguridad en existencia para la imprimir los sellos de navidad mencionados, evitando así que el gobierno pudiera cometer fraudes con el mismo.

Detailed account of the feud between Fred S. Smith, a philatelic dealer, and J. Murray Bartels, another philatelic dealer and newspaper columnist with regards to the authenticity of a shipment of 70,000 2c on 2c green U.S. envelopes surcharged for use in Cuba obtained by Mr. Smith through contacts at the U.S. Military Post Office at Santiago de Cuba for sale in the U.S. Following is a list of related articles referenced in this piece: <AJP89909>, <BART89904c>, <BART89904d>, <BART89906b>, <BART89906d>, <BART89908a>, <BART89908c>, <BART89908e>, <COLM9908a>, <HART9908>, <JONE8400>, and <SMITF9908>.

El artículo explica las circunstancias que dieron origen al sello cubano Scott 226A. Los sellos de EEUU sobrecargados para 10c durante la intervención americana eran Scott 282C tipo I, de color carmelita e impreso en 1898. Sin embargo, para presentarlo en la Exposición Universal de Paris se utilizó una hoja del Scott 283 tipo II, de color carmelita naranja e impreso en 1897. La diferencia entre ambos sellos americanos, además del color ligeramente diferente, se da en pequeñas modificaciones en las planchas utilizadas para su impresión. Algo similar ocurrió con el sello de entrega especial E1, los sellos para la exposición, son sobrecargas hechas sobre una hoja de una plancha diferente a los que se utilizaron en Cuba.

Letter to Mr. Gilbert N. Plass dated 20 April 1988

The letter chides Mr. Plass, editor of the journal Possessions for posting a notice in the journal that Dr. José A. Ferrer-Monge has been dropped from membership of the U.S. Possessions Philatelic Society for "non-payment of dues" and informs Mr. Plass that Mr. Ferrer-Monge died on July 16, 1986, and requests that he publish a correction to the notice of non-payment of dues. The second paragraph of the letter goes on to mention that Mr. Ferrer-Monge was the author of the landmark "A Partial Bibliography of Cuban Philatelic Literature" that was published in the Philatelic Literature Review of the American Philatelic Research Library between 1978 and 1979 (see <FERRM7806> and <FERRM8401>) and that he "maintained what was perhaps the most complete library of books and articles on Cuban philately ever assembled". [The Ferrer-Monge library was acquired after his death by a group of his friends and collaborators that included Mr. Jones and myself (see <CUES8906>). I have originals or copies of all of his library materials in my own personal library.]

Comentarios y opiniones acerca un grupo de sobres americanos, sobrecargados para su uso en Cuba durante la intervención americana, y que el catálogo Scott los incluye como “no emitidos de forma regular”. "Letter to Ernesto Cuesta dated 10/3/89"
Unpublished personal correspondence of Ernesto Cuesta
The letter accompanied a precis of the "Contract for Mail Steamer Service Between Cuba and Puerto Rico and in the Gulf of Mexico and the Caribbean Sea" prepared by Mr. Jones from the full Spanish text of the contract that Ernesto Cuesta transcribed from a copy of the original manuscript of the contract that was found by José Ferrer Monge (see <POSTa188108>). The letter contains some interesting comments and observations by Mr. Jones on the contract. The precis was later published in the Postal History Journal by Rober G. Stone in June 1990 (see <STONR9006>) and is also listed as <JONE9006>.

Priced Catalog of the Revenue Stamps of Cuba
Miami, Florida: Edited and published by Pedro M. Rodríguez, May 1990, 155 pp., ill., Span. & Eng. 200 copies printed; spiral bound. See <MART9005> for book review that appeared in the PLR.

This is the first comprehensive catalog of Cuban revenue stamps since the Forbin catalog of 1915 and is a monumental accomplishment on the part of Messrs. Jones and Rodríguez on behalf of the philately of Cuban revenue stamps. I mention Messrs. Jones and Rodríguez jointly because I am a witness to the tremendous contribution that Mr. Rodríguez made to the catalog with a superb job of editing and publishing on top of the usual magnificent research work done by Mr. Jones. This work is an essential reference for the student and collector of Cuban revenues. Notwithstanding the outstanding quality of this work, I have three minor critical observations to make that should not detract from the importance of the work. First, I wish that the author would have deviced a numbering system that would match the Forbin numbering system and work as an extension of it for items that are missing in Forbin (omissions, unlisted varieties, new issues)--this would have done away with the need for a catalog number concordance table. Second, I find that the catalog lists as separate varieties a great number of minor varieties in color that do not really warrant separate listings and that are really meaningless unless one can envision the exact color shadings that the author had in mind while preparing the catalog. Third, and most important, I need to make the reader aware that the pricing listed in the catalog is based on a slightly varying multiplier that ranges between 3.33 and 3.5 of the Forbin prices most of the time with some occasional deviations. I disagree with Mr. Martin's opinion in <MART9005> that "the editors appear to have been conservative in their price listings". The market for Cuban revenues is extremely limited both in the quantity of material available and in the number of serious collectors. Up to the time of publication of this catalog, U.S. dealers had been pricing Cuban revenues at the equivalence of one dollar per Forbin franc. Upon publication of this catalog, all dealers started pricing Cuban revenues at Jones' catalog prices--an average increase of 3.5 times previous prices--without any regard to real supply and demand for the material. I strongly suggest that the collector be aware that any investment in Cuban revenues at the Jones' catalog prices may be extremely hard to recuperate.

FCb, Yr.13, No.2, May-Aug 1978, pp.16-23 (8), ill., Span. See <JUAR8009> for a follow-up.
El autor analiza publicaciones de la época y publicaciones posteriores sobre el tema. Concluye que la impresión de los llamados "Sellos de La Chambelona" fue realizada por filatelistas de Camagüey. Las planchas utilizadas para la sobrecarga no se destruyeron y existen reimpresiones hechas hasta los años 50. A su juicio las cubiertas existentes fueron cartas circuladas de favor.

Second Part: FCb, Yr.14, No.3, Sep-Dec 1979, pp.4-12 (9), ill., Span.
El autor en la primera parte discute sobre la definición de los enteros postales y narra el surgimiento y desarrollo de los mismos. En la segunda parte indica la clasificación propuesta por un grupo de coleccionistas franceses, las colecciones clásicas de eneros postales y cómo son imprescindibles en colecciones temáticas. Seems to be from an issue of a journal published by the Rotary International Society. The cover illustrates the sheet center block of 4 of Scott 362 issued on the occasion of the celebration of the 31st International Convention of the Rotary International Society held in Havana in 1940. One of the inside pages illustrates a single Scott 363 stamp and a souvenir sheet also issued for the occasion. Another page shows the two stamps issued by Cuba on 23 February 1955 to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Rotary International Society (Scott 536, C109), and another two pages show the front and back of the post office announcement for the same set providing historical background information about the Rotary International Society and details about the stamp issue.
