Report from a Dr. J. de San Martín of Havana of finding among his family files "many envelopes with the stamps attached of the provisional issue of the American Interventory Government in Cuba in 1898 (Puerto Príncipe) one containing a letter from General Leonard Wood to my brother-in-law, Dr. Pena" with a horizontal pair of U.S. stamps cancelled with a Manzanillo Military Station No.6 cancellation of Dec 1898. Ms. King further reports that she verified with Colonel C. S. Hamilton of Washington, that U.S. stamps had indeed been used in Cuba, Guam, and the Philippines before receiving U.S. stamps properly surcharged for those new U.S. Possessions. It is not clear whether the reference to the envelopes with Puerto Príncipe provisional issues really refers to Cuba Scott Nos. 176-220 or Scott 221-226, especially since Ms. King does not focus on them in her report. We also note that the reference to Dr. Pena is probably to a Dr. Peña. It would be interesting to find out if the referenced letter and cover still exist. I did not find it among my records of Manzanillo Military Station No.6 covers.

Report from the son of another veteran of the Spanish American War in Cuba describing finding four letters in his father's correspondence, two from Cuba and two from the Philippines with examples of both regular U.S. stamps and U.S. surcharged stamps cancelled in both countries with U.S. cancellations. The correspondent notes that the cancellations on the regular U.S. stamps are not military cancellations whereas the cancellations on the U.S. stamps surcharged for use in Cuba and the Philippines both bear military cancellations. Ms. King again verifies the veracity of the report with her contact, Colonel Hamilton of Washington.

One of the covers, dated in Havana, Oct. 24, 1848, reached Savannah on Oct. 28 on the steamship "Isabel" and was received in Charleston on Oct. 31. It is the earliest incoming steamship letter from Cuba recorded. The other cover was postmarked in Charleston on Oct. 31, 1848, and was carried on the same steamship "Isabel" on her return trip to Havana where a cds "EMPRESA/N.AMERICA" was applied in red on Nov. 4, 1848.

“The ‘YSLA DE CUBA’ Numbered Circular Datestamp Project”

(“El Proyecto de Fechadores Circulares Numerados ‘YSLA DE CUBA’ ”)

Bibliography of Cuban Philatelic Literature -- Internet Edition
Ernesto Cuesta

Co-authors: Ernesto Cuesta (<CUES9807>) and Ignacio Prats (<PRAT9807>).
CPa, Vol.10, No.29, Jul 1998, pp.132-137 (6), Eng & Span, ill.

This article provides an overview of these datestamps that were in use in Cuba during the last decade of the Spanish Administration starting from 1888 to 1898 and even into the U.S. Administration period until they were replaced by U.S. type datestamps. The overview is followed by an inventory of the known examples of these numbered datestamps identifying for each their earliest and latest known dates of use. The general format of the datestamp is illustrated, but no actual images of any of the datestamps are provided. The intent of the article was to generate interest in these datestamps and to solicit further examples of these datestamps from the public. This objective was realized with the publication of a follow-up article with additional examples in 2001 (see <GARCF0109> or <MARIO109>). Also see <RIOSP0807> for another article and listing of these datestamps. Eventually, the information in this article and all of its sequels was consolidated into the entry Archive of Numbered Circular Datestamps—Inventario de los fechadores circulares numerados YSLA DE CUBA \(1888-1899\) in the Spanish Administration section of “Pages from Cuba Collections” of the FILACUBA Website.

CPa, Vol.12, No.35, Second Third 2000, pp.49-51 (3), ill., Eng & Span.

This item summarizes letters received by the Society journal’s Editor under the following headings:

The Edward Goldsmith Collection auction by Mathew Bennett, The Y1/4 Stamps of 1860 with Editor’s Comments, and The Markings of the British Postal Agencies in Cuba. The first item points to the report of the Goldsmith Collection auction discussed in <xxx> and a letter to the Editor from Ernesto Cuesta discussing the same auction. The second item is a letter from Ignacio Prats reporting his finding of to that point the earliest date of use of an 1860 Y ¼ (Scott 15) stamp on cover. The item also includes a detailed rationale of why the author believes that the cover with the variety of transposed fraction numbers 4/1 instead of the usual 1/4 in Scott 15 that was sold as lot 1633 in the Bennett sale of the Goldsmith Collection is a forgery. This is followed by the arguments in favor of the cover’s authenticity summarized by the Society journal’s Editor. Finally, the last item is a report from Hans Vinkenborg that he has an example of a British marking used in Santiago of the type CDS1 but with the month before the day and wonders whether this is a significant variant to which the Editor answers that the date in these handstamps was formed with interchangeable slugs that were often transposed in order and thus constitute a minor variant.

Report of the formation of a study group on Cuban postal stationery at the annual meeting of the CPSA during the SARASOTA 2001 Philatelic Exhibition. It was decided that the group would consist of two sections, one covering the Spanish Colonial era, the U.S. Administration period, and the Republic and the other section covering the socialist period from 1959 on. Arturo Martín de Nicolás was chosen to lead the first section. Candidates to lead the second section were solicited in this piece, but none have volunteered to date. Upon the death of Arturo Martín de Nicolás, Ernesto Cuesta took the lead of this group coalescing around his FILACUBA Website (see postal stationery postings in the “Pages From Cuban Collections” of <CUES-FILACUBA>). Contributing members of this group have been Octavio Cabrera, Robert Littrell, and Mark Tyx. This group was instrumental in the update of the United Postal Stationery Society Catalog of the U.S. Administration Period of Cuba, published in 2009 under the editorial direction of George Krieger (see <UPSS0900>). Robert Littrell, assisted by the group and under the sponsorship of the FILACUBA Website, developed an Online Catalog of Cuban Postal Stationery and is currently coordinating the publication of a comparative catalog of the Spanish Colonial Postal Stationery of Cuba, Puerto Rico, and the Philippines.

“Letters to the Editor” “Cartas al Editor”

CPa, Vol.13, No.39, Last Third 2001, pp.92-93, ill., Eng & Span.

This entry reports three letters to the CPSA journal's editor under the following headings: “Correction: The Roberto Pichs Collection—Corrección: La Colección Roberto Pichs”, “The Capture of Havana by the British in 1762—La Toma de La Habana por los Ingleses en 1762” and “The ¼ Real Stamp of 1862—El Sello de ¼ real de 1862”. The first item corrects the statement made in the previous issue of the journal that the Roberto Pichs collection was donated to the U.S. National Postal Museum, pointing that Mr. Pichs' widow actually donated the collection in his name to the San Carlos Institute of Key West. The Smithsonian Institution with the assistance of Mr. Joseph Geracci, curator of the U.S. National Postal Museum, and myself, helped to prepare a Website describing the collection that was funded and is maintained by the Smithsonian Institution (the Website's url is <http://www.postalmuseum.si.edu/pichs/>). The second item is a note from Mr. Geoffrey Lewis, an expert in Philippines postal history mentioning that the British also took over Manila in the Philippines in 1762, but that no correspondence from the period of the British occupation is known to exist in private collections or public archives. The third item is a letter from Mrs. Silvia García-Frutos illustrating a letter that she had purchased with a pair of 1862 ¼ real Cuban stamp. She reports that the letter had been altered by replacing the original horizontal pair of ¼ real stamps with two singles. It was I that pointed out to Mrs. García-Frutos that the stamps had been replaced by showing her a photo of the cover with the original horizontal pair of stamps illustrated on p.17 of <EDIFIL9700>. The illustration was removed from the 2002 edition of the Edifil catalog <EDIFIL0200>.

Quoting from ACAD, "This article provides an insight into the sources of the postal demarcation "Islas de Barlovento" ("Winward Islands") that originally comprised the islands of Cuba, Hispaniola, Puerto Rico, Trinidad, and Margarita. The author studies the types of marks used throughout the years individually describing each one. No stamped letter has ever been reported carrying the mark "Islas de Barlovento". Almost all of the marks of this type used from the 18th Century until early 1820 were applied at Havana, while most of those used from 1820 on were applied in Spanish ports."

In fact this was the only fiscal use of an HABILITADO Por La NACION from 1868 or 1869 reported to date. Unfortunately, Mrs. García-Frutos later reported that she inadvertently disposed of the mailer in which Dr. Kourí returned the stamp after writing the article with the document inside it, so it has been lost to Cuban philately forever.

Report of the sale of the Ignacio Prats collection formed by him over half a century--one of the greatest and complete collections of Cuba ever assembled. The report provides an overall description of the contents of each of the four large lots in the Greg Manning Auctions, Public Auction 186, of 24 Jun 2006 (see <PRAT0606>) sale of the collection. The focus of the description is on the lot of the colonial period which was the most important part of the collection. By the way, Kourí erroneously indicates that the collection was sold by Harmers of New York, an error probably prompted by the fact that Harmers later resold important portions of the collection (see <HARM0702> and <HARM0704>).

This entry is cited due to the parallels with Cuban dated postmarks. In the second paragraph of the body of the book review, Dr. Kourí provides an overview of what a similar study of Cuban postmarks of the same period would entail and of its inherent difficulties due to the significant more numerous Cuban towns and the more numerous varieties of Cuban postmarks that were used. Dr. Kourí also mentions that the only significant attempt to document all of the postmarks of the colonial period of Cuba has been Abreu's 1996 Catálogo Histórico Postal de Cuba (1855-1898) (Postal History Catalog of Cuba (1855-1898)) (see <ABRE9600>).

Microsoft PowerPoint presentation given by the author at a meeting of the Cuban Philatelic Society of America held at StampShow 2008 in Hartford, Connecticut, on 17 August 2008, 35 pp., ill.

The presentation covers the period before Cuba's entry in the Universal Postal Union (UPU) in May 1877 and after Cuba's entry in the UPU until the end of the 19th Century. The following topics are covered:

- Early ship mail between Cuba and Germany.
- Early steamship mail between Cuba and Germany via the United States.
- Mail carried by German steamship companies traveling between Europe and the United States.
- Mail carried by German steamship companies traveling directly to Cuba.
- Summary of German postmarks used on incoming steamship mail from the West Indies (and some via the United States).
- German Steamship Companies Agents' Markings.
- German Naval ship mail.

ACAD, Yr.X, No.13, Sep 2009, pp.37-47 (11), ill., Span.

Quoting from the English summary in ACAD: The article discusses "the postal history of Eastern Florida during the first Spanish period (1513-1763), the British period (1763-1784), and the second Spanish period (1784-1821). ... During the second Spanish period a postal office, depending upon Havana, was established in San Agustín at the end of June 1874". The close interrelationship between Eastern Spanish Florida and Cuba make this article of interest to the Cuban postal historian.

New York: Robert A. Siegel Auction Galleries, Inc. Catalog of Sale 989, 19 June 2010 (see <SIEGR1006a>), Cuba lots #225 to 255 (31 lots total) on pp.135-148 (14), and Catalog of Sale 992, 25 June 2010 (see <SIEGR1006b>), Cuba lots #2700 to 2763 (64 lots total) on pp.105-113 (9), both with prices realized.

The first 30 lots of Sale 989 were the rarest of the Puerto Príncipe stamps and covers (8) in the Dr. Yamil H. Kourí, Jr. Collection of Puerto Príncipe Surcharged Issues and they sold for a total of $91,450, not including the 15% commission charged by the auctioneer. Lot #255 was a used 1899 2c. inverted surcharge on a 2c. U.S. postage due stamp that did not sell. The rest of the Dr. Yamil H. Kourí, Jr. collection of Puerto Príncipe Surcharged Issues was sold in Sale 992 and consisted of a substantial holding of the five printings of these issues, but did not include any covers since all covers in the collection had been sold in the previous Sale 989. The 64 lots of stamps that were sold in this second sale realized a total of $33,410, bringing the combined total realized by the two parts of Dr. Kourí's Puerto Príncipe Collection to $124,860, not including the 15% sale commission.

"Las Marcas de Correo Marítimo Transatlántico ESPAÑA"

("The ESPAÑA Transatlantic Mail Postmarks")

Bibliography of Cuban Philatelic Literature -- Internet Edition
Ernesto Cuesta

ACAD, Yr.XI, No.14, Nov 2010, pp.41-63 (23), ill., Span.

Quoting from the English summary in ACAD: The State Maritime Post, established in 1764, made regular transatlantic travel possible, with monthly journeys between La Coruña and Havana. To help the new service, specific rates were established for all overseas correspondence. To determine the origin and destination of sea-bound letters three types of handstamps were created—ESPAÑA, YNDIAS, and YSLAS. The ESPAÑA postmark should be applied at the departure ports of the Peninsula to all mail addressed to the New World. Initially this happened with some regularity. If a letter was received at a port of the Americas without this postmark, it would be struck on arrival or in transit in the first postal administration having such postmark. This last practice was more common in the 19th century. The major American ports responsible for the redistribution of transatlantic mail were Havana, Cartagena de Indias, Veracruz and Buenos Aires. The author examines in detail the origin of the ESPAÑA postmarks, the 14 identified types, their characteristics and application sites, with many graphic examples.

Weston, MA: Spellman Museum of Stamps and Postal History, paper presented at a postal history symposium held at the Spellman Museum in May 2013 and published in 2014 as part of From Indian Trails to the Birth of a Nation, edited by Douglas Clark. The copy in my library is the final copy submitted to the symposium that was provided by the author and consists of 32 unnumbered pages.

Quoting from the article's introduction:

"All of the northernmost territories in the New World once controlled by the Spanish would eventually become part of the mainland of the United States, comprising the young nation's entire southern boundaries. This article summarizes what is known of the postal history and mail service in these vast but sparsely populated regions that for the most part were not closely interconnected and operated mainly as separate entities subordinate to other somewhat distant regional colonial hubs. The colonial era in most of these territories officially ended in 1821 when Mexico gained its independence from Spain."

The article is included in this bibliography because some of the Spanish colonial mail that it talks about originated in Cuba.

Quoting from the article's introduction: "On October 1764 the [Spanish] Maritime Mail Service (Correos Marítimos del Estado) was created. This state-run enterprise provided the first regularly scheduled reliable sailings between Spain and several ports in the Spanish Americas. This brief article gives an overview of the Spanish Maritime Mail Service and its impact on the postal history of the American Continent. A few representative examples of the mail and postal markings of this period are illustrated."

("The 1898 Provisional Stamps of Gibara (Cuba)")

ACAD, Vol.XVI, No.19, Jul 2015, pp.97-103 (7), ill., in Spanish.

Quoting from the English language summary of the article in ACADEMVS: " The scarcity of stamps and stamped stationery items during Cuba's war of independence, in the areas outside the control of the Spanish Government, was a common situation that aggravated in late 1898 and early 1899 in the areas occupied by U.S. troops. To cope with this shortcoming, the authorities in several towns of Cuba and Puerto Rico had to resort to issuing provisional stamps. The village of Gibara, on the Northwestern coast of Cuba, devised two round format, provisional stamps of 2 and 5 cents, which circulated between November and December, 1898, and of which, the philatelic community had only notice in 1997. Only four complete envelopes and two fragments featuring these imprints are known, which leads the author to claim that this is one of the rarest issues generated during the conflict. All known copies are reproduced within the article."

Unpublished 38 page presentation given to the Royal Philatelic Society of London on 12 Nov 2015 covering in detail the first postal issues of the Spanish Antilles. The four principal printings of these issues are discussed together with mayor plate varieties and usages, including the 1855 and 1860 surcharges. Among the usages discussed are their use on revenue documents, use as postage due stamps, foreign destinations, usages abroad, postal counterfeits, and finally their demonetization. A one page bibliography of related works on the subject caps the presentation.

Quoting from the English language summary of the article in ACADEMVS: "The article examines the circumstances surrounding the suspension of the United States mail to the Spanish territories during the 1898 Spanish-American war, and the labels and markings implemented on the discontinued correspondence in New York, San Francisco, New Orleans and Boston. The vicissitudes of the mail from other countries to Cuba and from Spain and its territories to the United States are also researched, as well as the resumption of the postal service after the cessation of hostilities on August, 12, 1898. The author reproduces many circulated letters featuring the labels and markings used during the conflict."

This usage is mainly observed on government mail; examples on ordinary mail and foreign correspondence arriving in or transiting Cuba are more unusual. The practice flourished from 1858 to 1869.
