PHJ, No.159, Oct 2014, pp.31-32, ill.

Brief report of the "Early U.S. Postal History Symposium" held just before the start of the 2013 Philatelic Show in Boston. During the symposium Dr. Yamil H. Kourí presented a paper on Spanish Colonial Mail to present day United States, primarily during the 18th Century, including mail to Louisiana, Florida, Texas, New Mexico, and California (see <KOUR1305>). Quoting from the piece: "Kourí describes Spanish Colonial mail to present-day U.S. areas. These are primarily of the 18th century and include the areas of Louisiana, Florida, Texas, New Mexico, and California. For each of these locales he discusses postmasters, rates, markings on letters, and the mail services. Few covers are known from some of these areas, but Kourí illustrates some of them."

The interest of this catalog of Philippines fiscal stamps for the Cuban collector is in the fact that some of the fiscal stamps issued by the Spanish Administration for Cuba and Puerto Rico were either also intended for use in the Philippines or were initially only intended for use in Cuba and Puerto Rico but their use was later extended to the Philippines. The catalog provides very useful information in this regard.

The Standard Catalogue of Postage Stamps

Ipswich, England, Whitfield King & Co., publisher, 10th edition, 1910, ill. Cuba on pp.96-101 (6). Stamp images are generally of poor quality. Prices are provided for unused and used stamps in shillings (s) and pence (d).
The Cuba section comprises stamps from 1855 to 1907. However, the listings after the heading "American Occupation" are confusing and partly erroneous. No mention is made of the Puerto Príncipe surcharged stamps. The surcharges of the U.S. surcharged stamps for Cuba (Scott 221-226) are not properly illustrated. The 1899 stamps printed in the U.S. for Cuba (Scott 227-231) are illustrated with the label 1899-1907 under them with no distinction made with the Republic issue 1905 (Scott 233-237) using the same designs but with distinguishing adornments. Following these an illustration of the surcharge of Scott 232 is provided, but no mention is made to the fact the surcharged stamp is the first stamp of the Cuban Republic. Next is the heading "Special Delivery Stamps with a listing of Scott E2 and E3 correctly mentioning the spelling error of the word "INMEDIATA" with an initial double "MM" instead of "NM". The listings end with the heading "Postage Due Stamps" listing the 1899 U.S. surcharged stamps for use in Cuba (Scott J1-J4).

The Standard Catalogue of Postage Stamps of the World.

Most of the problems noted in <WHITF1910> during the period of the U.S. Administration and early Republic have been corrected; however, the stamp images are pretty poor overall. The Puerto Príncipe surcharged stamps are still not listed or mentioned at all.

Ipswich, England, Whitfield King & Co., publisher, 47th edition, 1948, ill. Cuba on pp.179-186 (8).
The Cuba section in this edition covers postage stamps and airmail stamps intermixed in chronological order up to 1947. The special delivery section covers stamps up to 1936. The postage due section is the same as in previous editions, stopping in 1927. The quality of images of colonial stamps is still quite poor and so are the images of the 1898 U.S. surcharged stamps for use in Cuba, as was the case for all previous editions of the catalog. There is still no mention of the Puerto Príncipe surcharged stamps. The images of the stamps of the Cuban Republic are of much better quality.

Chron, WNo.201, Vol.56, No1, Feb 2004, pp.63-73 (11), ill.

The article examines two postal marks used in the mid-19th century in the American cities of Savannah and Charleston. These marks, featuring the word "HAVANA," were the first American postmarks to include the name of a foreign city, used to identify mail arriving from Cuba. The linear "HAVANA" mark was employed in Savannah from 1848 to 1859, alongside a circular "SAVANNAH" postmark. The article includes images of seven covers with these marks and explains their rates, dates, and details. In Charleston, two postmarks featuring "HAVANA" were also used. The article shows images of two covers with these marks, along with three additional covers combining a circular "CHARLESTON" mark and a linear "HAVANA" mark.

"Zeppelin Letters: A Coincidence or a Clue?"

APJ, Vol.76, No.11, WNo. 905, Nov 2005, pp.465-470 (6), ill.

The article indicates that the Cuban destinations of the 1930 South America Graf Zeppelin flight are a bit murky in how they were handled. The article further indicates that the Sieger Zeppelin Post Katalog simply states that covers from that flight addressed to Cuba were flown to Havana from New York by airplane. The author then illustrates a couple of such covers and tries to explain their routing from markings on the covers. An Editor's Note at the end of the article explains that the Graf Zeppelin intended to drop mail at Havana and collectors had the option of designating Havana as a destination for their airmail. The Havana stop plan was aborted and the airmail destined for Havana ended up at Lakehurst, arriving there on May 31 and was then forwarded to Havana where it arrived on June 2 as shown on one of the covers illustrated in the article. The article is followed by two "Letters to the Editor" in the December and January issues of the Air Post Journal with corrections to some of the information presented by Mr. Wilcsek in his article.

Mail from Cienfuegos was loaded and off-loaded on both legs of the flight, and mail off-loaded at Cienfuegos was then routed to other destinations in Cuba. The plane also made stopovers in Kingston, Jamaica, and Barranquilla, Colombia. North Atlantic Mail Sailings 1840-75

Co-author: Walter Hubbard (see <HUBB8800>)

Canton, Ohio: U.S. Philatelic Classics Society, 1988, 419 pp., ill. ISBN 0-9503548-4-0.

The book is a thorough compilation of sailing lists for all the ocean contract mail steamship lines operating on the North Atlantic from 1840 to 1875. Each chapter of the book concentrates on a contract mail steamship line, provides a historical background of each line, and lists the departure and arrival dates in chronological order of each leg of all round trips made by the ships operated by the line together with the name of the ship. Additionally, known irregularities or deviations from regular operations are noted for many of the listed trips.

Quoting Mr. Winter: The book "provides a comprehensive listing of the sailings of all the mail steamers that carried letters across the Atlantic under the treaties described by Hargest see <[HARG7100>] and with the rates listed by Starnes see <[STAR8200>]. From these sailing tables, collectors can find the departure and arrival dates of the steamships that conveyed the mails across the Atlantic." The book is an invaluable tool for the Cuban philatelist in analyzing the routing and markings of mail from and to Cuba that traversed the Atlantic on one of the listed contract mail steamship lines during the period covered by the book.

Understanding Transatlantic Mail, Volume 1

Bellefonte, PA: American Philatelic Society, 2006, 482 pp., ill. ISBN-13: 978-0-933580-24-4.

This book is a treatise on transatlantic mail between the U.S. and Europe in the 19th Century with chapters covering mail to and from Bremen, Britain, Prussia, and France. Since Cuban mail to European countries other than Spain was frequently routed through the U.S., the book is invaluable in understanding the routing markings on such mail from and to Cuba, and contains many examples of such mail. Look in the index for listings of covers originating in Cuban cities (Havana and Santiago) and listings of covers with destination to Cuban cities (Cienfuegos, Havana). This book was followed by Volume 2 in 2009 (see <WINT0900>) which is an equally impressive continuation of Volume 1.

"History of Cuba As Told by its Postage Stamps"

WPG, Vol.18, No.34, WNo.627, 11 Nov. 1933, pp.1057-1058, 1073-1074, ill.

The article provides a brief history of Cuba from the Spanish colonial period to the early 1930s using Cuban stamps of that period to illustrate the historical events around them. Stamps covered range from the first issue of Spanish colonial Cuba depicting Queen Isabella II up to the 15 Mar 1930 issue commemorating the 2nd Central American Athletic Games.

"New Issue Digest"

WPG, Vol.19, No.33, WNo.678, 3 Nov 1934, p.1032 and 1038.

This new issue digest contained two entries on Cuba:

Entry No.229, simply titled "Cuba" on p.1032 reports that remainders of postage stamps of the Revolutionary Commission of the Republic in Arms kept in storage at the General Treasury of the Republic that were supposed to be put on sale for philatelists were found to be stuck together and are being reviewed by a committee of experts to figure out how to salvage them.

Entry No.488 on p. 1038, titled "Why was the Cuban poetess, Gertrudis Gómez de Avellaneda postally honored as per Cuba Scott No.261?" provides biographical notes on Cuban poetess Gertrudis Avellaneda on the occasion of the Cuban stamp issue (Scott 263, NOT Scott 261, as in the title of the entry) to commemorate the 100th anniversary of her birth and promote her prowess as a great female poetess of the time.

"Cuba Honors the Discoverer of Insect that Transmits Yellow Fever"

WPG, Vol.19, No.39, WNo.684, 15 Dec 1934, p.1219.

Biographical and historical notes on Cuban Dr. Carlos J. Finlay who identified the mosquito "Stegomyia fasciata" as the real transmitter of yellow fever from man to man. In his honor Cuba issued two stamps bearing his effigy on December 3, 1934.

"The Free Zone of the Port of Matanzas and Its Commemorative Stamp Issue"

WPG, Vol.23, No.2, WNo.777, 26 Sep 1936, pp.40-43 (4).

The Cuban government established regulations for the sale of the set of stamps commemorating the first anniversary of the Free Trade Zone of the Port of Matanzas (Scott 324-331, C18-C21, CE1 and E8). The article provides images of the 14 stamps in the set, and clarifies the applicable regulations, specifies the number of each stamp value issued, and the amounts of stamps allowed to be acquired by each person.

"Artists and Writers Set of Cuba"

WPG, Vol.25, No.23, WNo.850, 19 Feb 1938, pp.810-811.

This entry is also listed as <CARR3802>.

Reproduction of a letter from Peter E. Carr originally published in SMJ of January 1938 in which he provides background information on the issue (Scott 340-354, C24-C29, E10-E11) and justifies its intended purpose of providing funds for the American Association of Writers and Artists.

"Major-General Calixto García"

WPG, Vol.32, No.16, WNo.1025, 28 Jun 1941, p.497.

Bibliography of Cuban Philatelic Literature -- Internet Edition

Ernesto Cuesta

Biographical and historical notes on Major-General Calixto García, one of the leading generals of the Cuban wars of independence, having participated in both the 1868-78 and 1895-98 campaigns. He was honored with a two stamp issue on November 6, 1939 (Scott 359-360).

"Latin American Philatelic Magazines"

WPG, Vol.33, No.20, WNo.1055, 24 Jan 1942, p.537;

WPG, Vol.33, No.23, WNo.1058, 14 Jan 1942, p. 601. Cuba on p.601.

Listing of Latin American philatelic magazines at the time of publication with their addresses. The Cuban philatelic magazines listed are Actividades Filatélicas, Boletín oficial de la Secretaría de Comunicaciones (not really a philatelic magazine; rather a Postal Service bulletin), Filatelía Cubana, and Unión. All are included in this bibliography under the keys AF, BC, FCa, and UFPI.

"Cuba Used in Haiti"

WPG, Vol.39, No.7, WNo.1198, 21 Oct 1944, p.163.

Reprinted from SCF; and both probably prompted by <PRES4201>.

The title of the two paragraph article is misleading: the article refers to the cancellations applied on Antilles stamps (Cuba Scott 12-14) during the period of annexation of the Island of Hispaniola (currently Haiti and Dominican Republic) by the Spanish from 1861 to 1864 (see <GUER8300>, p.54). Examples of Scott #12 and 13 with these cancellations are known to exist and the author surmises that thus Scott #14 may also exist similarly used, but had no knowledge of any having been reported.

"Cuban Revolutionary Stamps"

AP, Vol.42, No.4, January 1929, p.231.

Description of stamps issued by the Cuban Revolutionary Junta in the United States. It is indicated that its intention was to raise funds for the cause of Cuban independence. The article states that the stamps have no recognition in the Scott catalog and that there is uncertainty about their postal use since the author is not aware of seeing any of them cancelled or used on covers.

"Boston Notes"

MK, Vol.13, No.6, WNo.423, 29 Feb 1899, p.60.

Wondering about the retail price that the Cuban 2 1/2c surcharged stamps (Scott 223) should command in face of the numbers printed and the timing of the placement of the 2c stamps (Scott 222) in circulation.

<WYLIE9906> Wylie, Willard G.

"Boston Notes"

MK, Vol.13, No.25, WNo.442, 22 Jun 1899, p.237.

Report that the U.S.2c carmine on amber envelopes surcharged 2c. de peso for use in Cuba are on sale for 25c [presumably in Boston] while at the same time the author's Matanzas correspondent reports that he tried to buy some at the Havana post office eight weeks earlier and was not able to obtain any.

<WYLIE9908> Wylie, Willard G.

"Boston Notes"

MK, Vol.13, No.35, WNo.452, 31 Aug 1899, p.315.

Report that some 2c. de peso Cuban surcharged envelopes, carmine on blue, green on amber and green on buff that are on sale in Boston have been reported to be fakes. Note that the green on amber and green were 1c envelopes, not 2c. Fakes of these covers may exist, but if they do, they are not commonplace, so this report probably had no basis.

"It's Worth Mentioning: U.S. stamps overprinted for use in Cuba..."

WSC, 3 Jun 1947, p.3.

Comments on the contrast between the popularity of collecting the U.S. stamps overprinted for use in Cuba (Scott 221-226) and the lack of interest in the definitive pictorial series issued by the U.S. in 1899 (Scott 227-231) that collectors should also consider to be U.S. stamps. Also, reference to the contract issued to the American Banknote Company by the Republic of Cuba for the printing of the first stamp series of the Republic (Scott 233-237), noting that they are listed in the catalogs as re-engravings of Scott 227-231, but that a correspondent, H.S. Dickey, believes they were produced from new dies since they are a "generous" millimeter larger than the former.

"It's Worth Mentioning: Castro's Cuba issued 2 centavos, 3 centavos and 10 centavos to commemorate the first anniversary of the Bay of Pigs invasion..."

WSC, 26 May 1962, p.4.

This brief new issue report is worth citing because it mentions the fact that one of the designs shows a plane falling in flames from the sky which the author notes "is interesting in view of the fact that airplanes didn't participate in the invasion".
